According to statements of the governor of the Central Bank of Cyprus Constantinos Herodotou and Financial Ombudsman Pavlos Ioannou, the assets and property of the Russian Federation have been frozen by local authorities of Cyprus {1}.

Due to my rights to act on behalf of both the Foundation for Constitutional Development (Фонд Конституционного Строительства) and the community Rus' (Русь) in agreement with the rule of law specified in its Constitution, and therefore to dispose over all assets and property stolen from Russia and other parts of the former USSR whose legal successor is the community Rus' (Русь) {2}, I demand to put said assets and property to my disposal immediately.

The disregard of my demand will be qualified as violation of the rule of law, and the violators will be subject to the measures mentioned in Articles 3.2, 7.5, 7.12 of the Constitution of the community Rus' (Русь) in compliance with the Nuremberg principles of law.
